

SECTION B

1. After watching 'Jenny's Story' has it changed your view about passing a stranger on to a friend on the internet?
2. After watching 'Jenny's Story', has it increased your awareness of the dangers/risks of trusting someone that you have not met face to face online?
3. Would you allow someone that you have met in a chatroom to contact you on your mobile phone, on your home phone, or by post?
4. Would you meet up with someone you have only met on the internet on your own?
5. If you were going to meet someone you have chatted to on the internet, would you tell someone?
6. Do you know how to save conversations, where possible, that you have had in chatrooms/on Instant Messaging?
7. If you were concerned about a person who contacted you on the internet who you didn't know, would you tell anyone?
8. Who would you tell? (circle as appropriate)

For example a    Friend,    Parent,    Teacher,    the Police    or    Childline
9. Would you send a photograph to someone you do not know via the internet?
10. In your own words, what do you think is the best piece of advice for young people about chatting to strangers on the internet?

.....
.....
.....
.....